

A Call To Discern Our Day In Light of Bible Truth

יהוה God calls His new-born children in Jesus Christ to live out His perspective in the setting of present culture. He does not want us to live in the cultures of the 1960s, 70s, 80s, etc. We are to be His lights in our current day.

That being so, we highlight some of the marching orders – some Bible principles so pertinent for today. We call folks to discern our day in light of Bible Truths and then go on to live out His contemporary Counsel. The following recommendations need to be present in sincere Christians – see our list of four suggestions right after the comment immediately below.

To set our present-day context and to list soon-to-come events which require our discerning, even today, we write ...

Between now and the next end of days big events (those being: 10 kings emerge as global leaders; the tax imposer is identified; Seal 4 of Revelation 6 opens; the revealing of the ax [antichrist] takes place [though some will be slow to accept him as such or outright refuse to affirm the little horn as such]) ... between now and the next end of days big events, what will be WISE to emphasize by way of Christ-honoring activity? We strongly encourage:

- ~ A solid BIBLICAL (not theological tradition) understanding of end times needs to be developed, if it hasn't already been done or set in motion.
- ~ Practice * for the days the Bible calls the war against the Saints. This could include saying “NO!” to (already present) unbiblical cultural mandates. This also calls for the shoring up of one's resolve to endure to the end. (Mt. 24:13)
- ~ An entrenched | firm WALK WITH GOD must be a part of our lifestyle. Simply restated, a very well established relationship with our dear Savior must be in place, one given to the rejecting of the option to compromise** Apostasy*** (falling away from the faith) is one contemporary matter our Lord Jesus has warned His sheep against. As we walk in God's Spirit | abide in His Vine, we will not suffer shipwreck of faith.
- ~ Participation in a Bible church which does not put traditions above clearly outlined (explicit) Counsel from God also needs to be part of the dynamic of our commitment to contemporary living in Christ. There are many lukewarm local churches today. Are you a part of an end-time BIBLE church, one which fosters pertinent passages about our end of days ? If not, find a church which is up to date on contemporary matters and which discerns our day in light of God's brilliant, magnificent Word.
