Making sure we're on the same page, I should offer a simple but accurate-to-the-view definition of the "Pre-Tribulation Rapture" position. Briefly stated, the Pre-Trib Rapture of the Church to meet the Lord Jesus in the air is said to take place before Daniel's 70th Week. This means, according to advocates of the view, true born-again Christians will be taken from the earth prior to the time when the Antichrist personally seeks to establish his global rule. The view teaches the Church will be gathered together – using II Thess. 2:1's phraseology – before the events outlined in Matt. 24:9ff, Revelation 6ff and prior to the Day of the Lord. As the position's title states, the rapture takes place prior to the Tribulation Period. What follows is a biblical refutation of this popular end-time view.
