New Year greetings to you! May 2025 be a year filled with God's heavenly blessings - see II Chronicles 7:14 for what it will take to restore the glorious favor He desires for His people!

Throughout this year we will be highlighting a grateful heart theme. Because the Word of God speaks to this matter on regular occasion (and encourages us to give thanks always, even in bad experiences), we will emphasize this mindset, especially due to what many are discerning will unfold: the mushrooming of darkness around the world* through the course of this year.

We'd like to do what we often do when entering into a series like this. We ask YOU to help us build the God-honoring focus by sharing with us what we might include in our topics relevant to a heart of gratitude. What are some general categories which prompt praise and thanksgiving to God Most High? You tell us. We, in turn, will prayerfully consider adding your suggestion to our list. While it may be well into 2025 when you see your topic weaved into our posts and published materials (as we already have a list), we'd encourage you to join us in ministering to both saved and unsaved alike. We offer a hint as to grounds for choosing:

The Word of God highlights MANY universal reasons to express gratitude to our generous Creator, Sustainer, Savior, Provider and soon-coming King. In fact, these very things illicit cause for praise. They are, themselves, reasons to approach God with a heart of thanksgiving. As the song goes: We praise Thee oh Lord, we praise Thee oh Lord, with hearts full of thanksgiving, we praise Thee oh Lord. Even music and all the depth of theory thereof promote a grateful response on our part ... at least this should be the case.

Friends, let's be realistic. God is the only sufficient cause for all that is. An eternal, all-powerful Creator (One who is personal given certain dynamics of His creation), all-knowing Transcendent, etc. is what it takes to see a universe such as ours into existence. May God be praised in our thankful response to His wonderful, glorious works [He grants] to the children of men! Psalm 107 sure nails it!

Okay, "tag you're it" as the saying goes. Do let us know what we can add to our list of things God graciously gives us, let alone the blessings which are resident in Him even prior to His gifts to us – that is, let's be thankful for Him | His being alone, apart from His gracious abundance which He showers upon us.

- * While unrest will grow (bringing global chaos), there will also be a movement which heralds global peace and safety. Watch out for this movement as it very well may comprise the leadership of the dark, one-world system – one which eventually issues in the début of the AX (the antichrist).
