

FAQ 23

Missing In Action ?

Q #23 Have you disappeared? Why haven't you been posting new material of late?

Good question, and I apologize for my negligence. I will change my ways and resume this important aspect of our ministry efforts.

In answer to your question, Endurance Ministries decided to move into a more public posture this next decade (2010 - 2020, should our Lord tarry). As a result, we have been directing our main attention to our first book publication—which is now available to the general public. If you are interested in viewing a short video promo, please visit the link below. THANK YOU for your continued interest in this crucial cultural affair. We look forward to your resuming your regular visits to this site where we will indeed resume addressing frequently asked questions.
