God's BIBLE Warnings That False Teachings Mushroom During The Days Of The End Are Being Fulfilled AND Will Continue To Be Fulfilled This Next Decade

Q #37 Are there false teachings being taught in the church today - teachings which directly oppose biblical instruction concerning the last days before Christ's glorious return?

Yes there are. In fact, there are many. The quote below is from a CD catching Kris Vallotton's presentation at Bethel Church's School of Ministry - where Kris lists "eight core values" tied to Dominion theology. You (the reader) discern the dangerous, partial-truth instruction for yourselves.

Kris Vallotton's Eschatological Applications ("8 Core Values")

"I will not embrace an end-time worldview that re-empowers a disempowered Devil.
I will not accept an eschatology that takes away my children's future and creates mindsets that undermine the mentality of leaving a legacy.
I will not tolerate any theology that sabotages the clear command of Jesus to make disciples of all nations and the Lord's Prayer that earth should be like heaven.
I will not allow any interpretation of Scripture that destroys hope for nations and undermines our command to restore ruined cities.
I will not embrace an eschatology that changes the nature of a good God.
I refuse to embrace any mindset that celebrates bad news as a sign of the times and necessary requirement for the return of Jesus.
I'm opposed to any doctrinal position that pushes the promises of God into a time zone that can't be obtained in my generation and therefore takes away any responsibility I have to believe God for them in my lifetime.
I don't believe the last days are a time of judgment nor do I believe God gave the church the right call for wrath for sinful cities. There's a day of judgment which God will judge men but it won't be us."

Okay, since the Word of God is our ultimate standard for Faith and Practice (as opposed to, in this example, Kris' standard as presented in these 8 core values - though he offers some helpful [that is, biblical] things elsewhere), how do the above values hold up when evaluated in light of the full Counsel of Scripture? If we know His Word, we discern the false teachings above. So let's measure all things in the light thereof. (Psalm 119:105)
