

Truth Matters! 2

What Do The Following Gospel Verses Have In Common?

Matthew 17:21 ; 23:14

Luke 17:36 ; 23:17

Mark 7:16 ; 9:44 ; 11:26 ; 15:28

John 5:4

Are you sitting down? All of the above verses are no longer included in the main reading text of some of the more recent translations of the New Testament. REALLY! Scholars, for reasons based on fallible human opinion, have decided that these verses should no longer appear in the currently published Greek New Testament—some of the Greek N.T. texts, anyway. Other scholars vehemently disagree due, in part, to a clear principle in the Bible. And let us not forget: New Testament Greek texts are translated into English (et al.) New Testaments.

Our concern is this: On what grounds are we making decisions contrary to what the Word of God teaches? The Word of God says His Word is forever settled in heaven (Ps. 119:89). The Word of God still says the entirety of it (His Word) is truth (Ps. 119:160). The Word of God, at this time, anyway (satirical), continues to declare nothing will by any means pass from “the law” till all is fulfilled (Mt. 5:18). And let’s not forget what the Word of God says in Revelation 22 concerning the taking away and the adding thereto. (Many words are omitted from the Book of Revelation in these more recent versions based upon the eclectic Greek New Testaments – Nestle and UBS texts.)

Our point is this: Have we once again elevated our limited human opinion* above the Word of God? When we make decisions undermining the biblical principles, have we not placed our view higher than the authority of God’s Word? With what warrant do we feel we can disregard the as-high-as-the-heavens-are-above-the-earth thoughts and ways of God for our human opinion?

Satan continued his doubting millennia ago when he questioned God’s Word by saying to Eve: “Has God indeed said?”

Satan’s contribution to the fall of humanity emphasized his intention to undermine God’s Word when he was so bold as to say, “You will surely not die. ...” This presents a clear example of darkness willfully rejecting what God has truthfully declared.

Satan went on to further challenge God’s Word and character with his opinion when he distorted the whole truth by saying, “For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.” Once again, another demonstration of a major quality of darkness: Rejection of God’s Truths, in this instance, through distortions thereof.

WOW! There are some parallels here, demonstrable in both the world and the church. We live in a day darker than many of us care to acknowledge, assuming we have discerned it in the first place! We actually live in a society that is following after exactly what the Word of God speaks to concerning the father of this world. Though they do not discern it, they are in bondage to the great deceiver, satan himself.

Concerning end-time themes in the Bible, how is it that the Word of God says the days of the end just prior to the glorious return of Jesus Christ will be like other days where the everyday activities are occurring while at the same time be days that witness tremendous evil? Study the passages that speak to these things. You will be amazed at how accurately the Word of God is now describing our day – a day that includes both the regular activities of life and horrendous, abominable deeds done by men. For a start, begin reading these passages found in the Bible:

The Psalms	Matthew 24, 25	I Thessalonians 4, 5
The Book of Daniel	Mark 13	II Thessalonians 2
The Book of Revelation	Luke 17, 21	I Timothy 4
The Minor Prophets	John 13 – 17	II Timothy 3, 4
The Gospels	I Corinthians 15	Titus
I & II Peter	I, II & III John	Jude

What a day in which to live! May we demonstrate ourselves to be sincere followers of Jesus Christ and remain in His Word, an abiding act that is ongoing and includes both reading and heeding.

* Even “scholarly address” is limited human opinion.

Copyright © 2021 by Endurance Ministries
Permission to copy and use this material for both
Gospel and Discipleship purposes is granted by the author.